

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences Advising Center Presents: CLASsified Information!

A series of workshops designed to give you information necessary for your academic success.

Please come by the Advising Center in 235 Fretwell to sign up!

University Academic Policies and Procedures

Friday, September 27th 11:00AM
Location: 121 Fretwell

- Learn about University deadlines, policies and procedures that you will encounter as a student.
- Learn about upcoming changes to current policies that will impact you.
- Important information for ALL students, especially for new transfers and new freshmen.

You are a Pre-Biology Major, Now What?

Friday, October 11th 11:00AM
Location: 121 Fretwell

- Learn about policies and procedures that will impact you as a Pre-Biology major.
- Learn about resources and useful career exploration information.
- This workshop is specifically for Pre-Biology majors and potential Pre-Biology majors.

You have questions. We have answers.

Friday, October 18th 11:00AM
Location: 121 Fretwell

- CLAS Advising Center Academic Advisors will be available to answer students' questions.
- Topics will include, but are not limited to: withdrawal, registration processes, changing majors, where to go for help, etc.
- This workshop is open to all CLAS students.