

Old People in Old Folklores

by Chris Chen
89512105

chris23441@yahoo.com.tw

Old Men in Western Image

Famous western stories about old men are The Little Red Riding-hood, Santa Claus, and The Old Man and the Sea. They represent peace, joy, and perseverance.

Old Men in Japanese Image

A popular TV cartoon is Maruko, where the grandfather is an interesting, forgetful, and imaginative old man. He's also the close family member of Maruko.

Old Men in Chinese Image

One of the old men images in China is the Moon Match-maker, who set up dates for single males and females. Since he has been made God, he symbolizes wisdom and kindness.

Prompts

1. What are the examples mentioned in the demonstration?
2. What traits of Western old men does the demonstration talk about?
3. What kind of person is Maruko's grandfather?
4. What did Moon Match-maker do in old Chinese stories?
5. Do you know what other well-known folklores about old men are?

